

62-997

CAMERON MILL RUIN - 1886 or earlier - West side of Cameron Mill Road, 0.1 mile north of Walker Road. A 30 x 40 foot foundation survives from a New Process roller flour mill put up by local millwright Abraham Lohr for George A. Cameron and his partner J.M. Jones as reported in 1886 issue of American Miller. It is not known whether the foundation of the pre-1794 Curfman-Walker Mill was reused in the modernization. Mill burned in 1943 or 1944. Owner: Richard Cameron.